ARTS ENRICHMENT PROGRAM FOR YOUNGSTERS
BEGINS JAN. 22 AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

The winter quarter "Saturday Arts Enrichment Program" for Missoula-area youngsters between the ages of 3 and 14 will begin Jan. 22 at the University of Montana. Program sessions are designed to enable the youngsters to explore a variety of arts.

Sessions will be held from 9:30-11:30 a.m. each Saturday through March 5 in the Fine Arts Building at UM. A fee of 75 cents for each of the seven sessions, totaling $5.25 for the entire series, will cover the costs of all supplies and materials used. Registration for the program is in room 101 of the Fine Arts Building.

Richard Reinholtz, associate professor of art at UM, is conductor of the program, which is in its tenth year of operation.

Children participating in the program will have an opportunity to work in media of their choice. Activities will include painting, sculpture, photography, creative movement, writing and composing.

Additional information may be obtained by phoning the UM Department of Art Office, 243-4181.
